**PUBLIC INSPECTION ONLY****

---

NOTE

Under Internal Revenue Regulations, tax-exempt charitable organizations generally must provide requesters with COPIES of:

- Its approved exemption applications, all required attachments and any related correspondence with the IRS, and
- Its three most recent annual information returns (Form 990), including all schedules and attachments (but not the names and addresses of contributors).

In-person requests: A member of the public may request to inspect the documents at any principal office of the organization. The entity must provide the information requested that same day. However, if the request places an "unreasonable burden" on the organization, the staff must provide copies of the requested information no later than the next business day after the unusual circumstances cease to exist (limited to a maximum of five business days after the request).

Written requests: Written requests made by fax, mail, email, or overnight service, which include the requester's address, must be honored within 30 days of receipt.

Website alternative: Instead of providing copies, an organization may make the documents available on either its own or another organization's website. If it uses this option, it has to: (1) provide an exact replica of the document as was filed with the IRS; (2) advise requesters how to access the forms on the web; (3) the site should charge no access fee and require no special software or hardware to download. Organizations that post this information on the Internet still must honor in-person requests to view the applicable documents.

Permissible charges: Tax-exempt organizations may charge a reasonable copying fee, up to $1 for the first page and 15 cents for each additional page, plus actual postage costs.

Penalties: An organization that fails to comply with the new disclosure requirements may be subject to the following penalties:

- Annual Information Return -- Form 990 - $20 per day for as long as the failure continues, up to a maximum of $10,000 for each failure to provide an annual return.
- Exemption Application - $20 per day with no maximum.
- An organization that willfully fails to comply with these public inspection rules can be subject to an additional $5,000 penalty.

Private foundation exempt: The new disclosure rules don't yet apply to private foundations. They must still make a copy of their annual return available for public inspection at their principal office for a period of 180 days after publishing a notice of availability.

Donor Information: Please note that donor information is not open to public inspection and has been excluded from this copy.

Part VI, Line 11b: Form 990 was prepared by staff, reviewed by an independent, retired CPA and the organization's top management, then forwarded to the Board of Directors for their review prior to filing the report.

Part VI, Line 12c: All Directors and Officers must annually sign a conflict of interest statement to ensure compliance with the organization's conflict of interest policy. The Board Secretary reviews the signed conflict of interest statements and ensures this is accomplished annually.

Part VI, Line 19: The organization makes its governing documents, conflict of interest policy and financial statements available to the public upon request. The financial statements and Form 990 are available on the organization's website.

Part XI, Line 9: The change in value of split-interest agreements was classified as a non-operating activity in the audited financial statements. Since it was not included in the income or expense sections of the Statement of Activities, it was not included on Form 990, Part VIII, Statement of Revenue or Part IX, Statement of Functional Expense. It affected the net assets so this adjustment needs to be reported here.

Part III, Line 4d: Cross Venture - Cross Venture and Brigade Air are two programs that bring young people to the JAARS campus to learn about Bible translation efforts around the world. Our hope is that these activities will encourage the participants to consider joining the Bible translation effort when they reach an appropriate age.

Part III, Line 4d: Guest Services - JAARS has on its campus 50 plus apartments and a few houses that can be rented by perspns who have a mission-related reason to be on its campus; training, transitioning to or from their field of service, furlough, volunteers or recently assigned to JAARS.

Part III, Line 4d: Purchasing and Shipping - JAARS provides to its partners the service of ordering and receiving merchandise and parts needed by an entity. Upon receipt of the merchandise, JAARS forwards it to the purchaser. JAARS handles the export/import issues. Shipping services are also provided to missionary families moving to or from their field of service to relocate their household goods.

Part IX, Line 16, column (B) - Occupancy (expense): This amount ($264,482) includes a non-cash grant of $88,132 to SIL International, JAARS' supported organization. $88,132 is the estimated annual rental rate for office spaces on JAARS' campus that are used by SIL personnel. JAARS supports SIL by not collecting rent for these spaces.
